In early 2010, the following Connecticut programs were recognized for outstanding accomplishments toward the goal of revitalizing their historic main street districts:

- Upper Albany Main Street
- Main Street Waterbury
- Simsbury Main Street Partnership
- Rose City Renaissance, Norwich
- Friends of Main Street, Middletown
- Downtown Middletown Business District
- Downtown New London
- UCONN student group, Husky Rents-A-Ride!
- Downtown Bridgeport
- Mansfield Downtown Partnership
- Chrysalis Center, in the Upper Albany Main Street District of Hartford
- Rose City Renaissance, Norwich
- UCONN student group, Husky Rents-A-Ride!
- Downtown New London
- UCONN student group, Husky Rents-A-Ride!

Each year the National Trust Main Street Center recognizes local Main Street programs that are building comprehensive and sustainable revitalization efforts in their communities. National Main Street Program Accreditation is a partnership between Connecticut Main Street Center and the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

For more information about the National Trust Main Street Accreditation Program, visit www.preservationnation.org/main-street.
The mission of Connecticut Main Street Center is to be the champion and leading resource for vibrant communities throughout Connecticut and Western Massachusetts. The Connecticut Main Street Center is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to support Main Street communities through training, technical assistance, and resources and programs that promote economic development, historic preservation, and revitalization. CT Main Street Center is generously supported by Connecticut Light & Power Company Award for Outstanding Contributions to Main Street Revitalization Program for the Partnership for Strong Communities for the HOMEConnecticut Campaign.

The Connecticut Main Street Center established the CPLP award in 2001 to recognize individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to Main Street programs. The award is presented to promoting an awareness of the necessity of a comprehensive management approach to the revitalization of downtown areas and neighborhood commercial districts.

CT Main Street Center Introduces Newest Directors!

Kimberly Parsons-Whitaker, President & CEO of the CT Main Street Center, is pleased to announce the following directors have joined the board of directors:

Kim A. Healey, Travelers
Bernard Kavaler, State of CT DECD
Sheila Hummel, NewAlliance Foundation
Robert W. Santy, Liberty Bank
Sara Kovacic, Connecticut State University System

The Connecticut Light and Power Company Award for Outstanding Contributions to Main Street Revitalization Program for the Partnership for Strong Communities for the HOMEConnecticut Campaign.

The Connecticut Main Street Center established the CPLP award in 2001 to recognize individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to Main Street programs. The award is presented to promoting an awareness of the necessity of a comprehensive management approach to the revitalization of downtown areas and neighborhood commercial districts. The Partnership for Strong Communities is a nonprofit organization. It develops and directs projects to identify solutions to the state’s housing affordability problems. By adoption of a strategic plan, it adapts uses of historic mixed-use buildings, streamlines housing opportunities for young professionals,� It works to create a vibrant mixed-use downtown business district.

The Partnership for Strong Communities was established to support the state’s downtown revitalization efforts through Main Street programs and to encourage economic development in downtown areas. The Partnership for Strong Communities is a nonprofit organization. It develops and directs projects to identify solutions to the state’s housing affordability problems. By adoption of a strategic plan, it adapts uses of historic mixed-use buildings, streamlines housing opportunities for young professionals,� It works to create a vibrant mixed-use downtown business district.

The Partnership for Strong Communities was established to support the state’s downtown revitalization efforts through Main Street programs and to encourage economic development in downtown areas. The Partnership for Strong Communities is a nonprofit organization. It develops and directs projects to identify solutions to the state’s housing affordability problems. By adoption of a strategic plan, it adapts uses of historic mixed-use buildings, streamlines housing opportunities for young professionals,� It works to create a vibrant mixed-use downtown business district.

The Partnership for Strong Communities was established to support the state’s downtown revitalization efforts through Main Street programs and to encourage economic development in downtown areas. The Partnership for Strong Communities is a nonprofit organization. It develops and directs projects to identify solutions to the state’s housing affordability problems. By adoption of a strategic plan, it adapts uses of historic mixed-use buildings, streamlines housing opportunities for young professionals,� It works to create a vibrant mixed-use downtown business district.

The Partnership for Strong Communities was established to support the state’s downtown revitalization efforts through Main Street programs and to encourage economic development in downtown areas. The Partnership for Strong Communities is a nonprofit organization. It develops and directs projects to identify solutions to the state’s housing affordability problems. By adoption of a strategic plan, it adapts uses of historic mixed-use buildings, streamlines housing opportunities for young professionals,� It works to create a vibrant mixed-use downtown business district.